

Industrial Puke biography and info, English 2024

Short biography:

Debut album "Born Into the Twisting Rope" from Swedish band Industrial Puke is the result of Linus Jägerskog (Burst) and Jens Ekelin (Rentokiller) sharing a common love for Disrupt and Dismember. With Mattias Rasmusson (Obstruktion/Gust/Blessings), Marko Partanen and Erik Harald (Rentokiller) joining ranks for a solid foundation of crust, death metal and hardcore.

The debut single "Mental Taxation" was released in June of 2022 and spawned a partnership with Suicide Records who released the debut EP "Where Life Crisis Starts" in September 2022. A sold-out debut show was played in December 2022 and full length album "Born Into the Twisting Rope" was released on May 12th 2023. Industrial Puke played shows at Summer Breeze festival and Metal Theatre Festival in 2023 as well as several shows around Sweden during 2023. More to follow in 2024, including the Stockholm Extreme Sounds festival in March and many more.

Longer biography:

In 2017, with fresh memories of previous musical trials and tribulations, Jens Ekelin (Rentokiller) called out for comrades sharing a love for Disrupt to start a new band. Swiftly Linus Jägerskog (Burst) and Marko Partanen (Rentokiller) both roared out a non-hesitant YES! and off Industrial Puke went. Following a long period of writing music and finding members, Mattias Rasmusson (Obstruktion/Blessings/Gust) and Erik Harald (Rentokiller) completed the line-up and recording ensued.

After the band self-released the debut single and video "Mental Taxation" in June 2022, Gothenburg-based Suicide Records offered to work with Industrial Puke. The partnership began with the release of the debut EP "Where Life Crisis Starts" in September 2022.

The album "Born Into the Twisting Rope" shows Industrial Puke honing in on their collective influences from hometown Gothenburg, the Swedish hardcore and death metal-scenes as well as the furious energy of acts like Disrupt, Kontrovers, Drop Dead and Napalm Death. The idea from the get-go was to focus on short, straightforward violent songs and this album leaves little space for contemplation or rest.

Reviews and features from Metal Injection, Decibel Magazine, Angry Metal Guy, Blabbermouth and many more all agreed on this being one of the most furious and crushing releases of hardcore flavored crust and death metal in 2023.

Greg Kennelty from Metal Injection called Industrial Puke's packed out debut show in Gothenburg "an explosion of energy on full tilt without a single moment of reprieve.".
